

So, what in the heck happened to THE CENTRAL TERMINAL? 1979-1999

Tony Fedele buys the Fedele's Plans...

- Casino
- Hotel
- Restaurant

Again and again vandals and thieves are traced back to Jesse. Here's some of what he did...

-
- A hand-drawn timeline on lined paper illustrating the events of the Apple Tree Inn case. The timeline is a horizontal line with several points marked by circles. Above the line, there are numbered notes and drawings. Below the line, there are additional notes and a date stamp.
- Point 1: A drawing of a clock tower. To its left, a note reads: "1) Ripped out and sold the Art Deco clock which in 2004 was found on eBay".
 - Point 2: A drawing of a building with a door. To its left, a note reads: "2) Bucked into plaster Buffalo smashing it white mess what...".
 - Point 3: A note reads: "3) Stealing eighteen brass fixtures".
 - Point 4: A note reads: "4) Stole other fixtures which years later ended up at a restaurant in Hong Kong".
 - Bottom Left: A note reads: "J.R.S. Chooses Apple Tree Inn".
 - Bottom Center: A date stamp reads: "1992".

So Tuchman Stops paying Telesco and Telesco gets an attorney :c

1999

Amtrak move to a box in Depot

Tony Fedele
buys the Terminal
from Cona for $75,000

Fedele's Plans:

- Casino
- Hotel
- Restaurant
- Mall
- Offices

J.R.S. Chooses
Apple Tree Mall
instead of CT for offices
because Sam Diamond of the SJA has a friend he GUESSES favor to at the 1992

the I.R.S. citing the violation of a Presidential order that says all government offices should be located in major cities... Buffalo not Cheek to wagg haunting and

Meanwhile the owner of Air Sep takes an interest in the terminal for manufacturing ... but the court doesn't know who owns the CT, so the opportunity is missed

uchman also wins R.S., but uses it to
for fighting Teleso
court
the sees of

1994

1994 Housing Court
Judge Robert
Russell moves ahead with legal processes for demolition. What saves the CR is that it would cost the city $11 million and they couldn't afford it.

1995

997

now takes Tuchman to court for neglecting the maintenance of the CT. Judge Broderick tells him to sell it to a preservation group.

Scott white buys building for $1 and shortly thereafter helps create the Central Terminal
Storage Corporation

Keep up the good work Restoring
the Central Terminal CTCR!
THE END

A.G. 13

THE BURDEN of the Central Terminal

by Daniel Galas

Instead he does what he can...

- Makes an apartment for himself in the tower
- Floor hockey games
- Boxing tournaments
- Rents the space for movies

But Taxes catch up with Tony and U.S.
Bankruptcy Court
Judge John W. Creaham
orders
foreclosure

1986 Mayor Jimmy Griffin doesn't care about preservation, so the City tries to get rid of it quickly. They start the bid at the taxes owed... $100,000

Thomas Telescope
and Associates
place the only bid and win
the CT for $100,000!
The lies commence

I will say to the Preservationists: we are not going to ruin what we consider a masterpiece. The first job will be to restore the concourse.

Richman's last chance is his son's idea to make the CT a call center... of course it fails!

Tushman washes hands of the CT and to secure the place vandals and thieves.

Who is Telesco?
4 year old Buff.
tractor from the west side and former Jack Daniel's Night
club operator

Nothing materialize
but rumor has it he's into drugs and his contracting business is failing

1990 Enter Sam
Tuchman, a developer from Malibu, who pays Telecom $350,000
of 1.3 million
USD

The I.R.S. expresses interest in making the CT an office for 300 employees

It's exciting, we're going to create a new city there... People will come from all over the country to see it."

"Financing is the least of our problems!"

...Buffalo
...Mayor
...diverts
funds to Sheas
in downtown
Buffalo
buys

Keep up the good work Restoring
the Central Terminal CTC!